Anschließend bieten sich Korrekturen im Detail an.

- ich habe meine Lösung mit der Musterlösung abgeglichen und sinnvolle Ergänzungen gemacht

Passenger: I would like to travel next weekend.

Agent: Can you spell the name of your destination please.

Passenger: Yes, Speyer. S-P-E-Y-E-R.

Agent: Alright, it is in Germany. You have three trains to choose from: on Saturday, leaving at 11, on Sunday leaving at 10 and on Sunday leaving at 14.

Passenger: Is there a huge price difference?

Agent: The train on Sunday leaving at 10 o'clock in the morning is the cheapest. It makes a difference of 30 pounds.

Passenger: I will take this train then. How often do I have to change?

Agent: Here is your connection. You can see it on the display and I will also print it out for you. You leave at 10 o'clock in the morning. It means that you need to be at the Eurostar terminal an hour earlier, at 9 o'clock in the morning. You have 55 minutes in Brussels. It is not very long given that you will have to pass the border control and change the platform. You must take the train in Brussels on track 5 at 13:55. Then you change in Cologne at 16:50. Agent: Certainly. It is 150 pounds please.

Passenger: Are you sure this is the cheapest ticket?

Agent: A lot of people are travelling over the weekend I am afraid. Yes, it is the cheapest connection available. If you can travel on Monday, you can save 60 pounds.

Passenger: It is a difference, but I still prefer travelling at the weekend.

Agent: Thank you. I know the prices have gone up a little bit. Would you like to use cash or a card?

Passenger: Cash please.

Agent: Thank you. Here you go. You can find your connection on this sheet. You can find the current information about your train at this website and you can call this number for further assistance anytime. Autumn celebrations

Autumn, also known as 'fall' in American English, is a special season. People around the English-speaking world have different festivities. It is often so windy that you can fly your kite.

Let's look at North America. It gets colder and darker outside and people in the USA celebrate Halloween on the 31st of October to chase away the ghosts. They put pumpkins with candles in front of their houses and children in disguise walk from door to door and say "trick or treat" to get some sweets.

On the fourth Thursday of November Thanksgiving is celebrated to thank God for the harvest. Everyone invites their families to have a meal together which usually includes turkey.

The British have also got a famous celebration in autumn. It is called Guy Fawkes Day or Bonfire Night. Guy Fawkes belonged to a group that wanted to blow up Parliament in 1605. But he was caught with loads of gunpowder in the cellar of the Houses of Parliament and there was no danger anymore. Today people still celebrate this day with bonfires and fireworks and every child knows the famous verse:

Remember, remember the fifth of November, gunpowder treason and plot. We see no reason why gunpowder treason should ever be forgot!

We also pick apples and sometimes we make apple juice or bake a cake. Before Halloween I carve a pumpkin and put a candle into it. On the 31st October I dress up like a ghost and my friends and I walk from door to door and collect sweets. With my little brother I make a lantern for St. Martin and on the 11th November, we take part in the St. Martin's procession.

Our schedule is the following: we are puting our sneakers and are joging in Merrion Square Park, then we are haveing a great Irish meal (I love boxty!).
